To Whom It May Concern,

I am a concerned citizen and information technology professional. I am writing to express my opinion that the proposed settlement is inadequate. I have included a url at the end of this email to an essay which expresses many of my reasons for holding to my opinion on the matter. Although I did not write the essay, I have read the essay in it's entirety and I agree with the analysis presented in the essay. I have communicated to the author of the essay my desire to be a cosigner of the essay when it is transmitted to the department of justice. This email is evidence of that intention. Thank you for your time and attention to this email.

The url for the essay is:
<http://www.kegel.com/remedy/remedy2.html>
